Tango Negro - African roots of Tango

*Directed by Dom Pedro
2013, 93 min.
France, Documentary
French/Spanish/ English sub*

Tango Negro, The African Roots of Tango by Angolan filmmaker Dom Pedro explores the expression of Tango's Africanness and the contribution of African cultures in the creation of the tango.

Tango was a reflection of the social life of the slaves that were taken to South America -- including Argentina and Uruguay -- mostly from central Africa, particularly from the former Kongo Kingdom.

Director Dom Pedro reveals the depth of the footprints of the African music on the tango, through this rich movie combining musical performances and interviews from many tango fans and historians in Latin America and Europe, including the renowned Argentinean pianist Juan Carlos Caceres.

The Black Roots of Salsa The Emancipation of Cuban Rumba

*Filmed & Edited by:
Christian Liebich
2004 - 2016, 100min.
Attic Independent*

An incomparable dialog between generations Get fascinated by this journey owing to Cuban culture, full of dance and music.

In interviews, music- and dance sequences exhibit some of the most important and world famous protagonists of the cultural scene in Cuba, the conversion of Cuban Salsa, Rumba and African tradition until the present era.

The movie impresses with its proximity to protagonists. They discuss different subjects and get into details by live demonstration. They provide an overall understanding of the topic for Cuba specialists as well as interested viewers.
